TO THE HONORABLE CECELIA G. MORRIS UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Baker & Hostetler LLP (“B&H”), as counsel to Irving H. Picard, Esq., trustee (the “Trustee”) for the substantively consolidated liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC (“BLMIS”) under the Securities Investor Protection Act (“SIPA”), 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq.,¹ and the chapter 7 case of Bernard L. Madoff (“Madoff”), individually (collectively, the “Debtor”), respectfully submits this forty-first application (the “Application”) on behalf of the Trustee and itself for an order pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, §§ 330 and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and the Order Pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA, sections 105, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a), and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2016-1 Establishing Procedures Governing Interim Monthly Compensation of Trustee and Baker & Hostetler LLP, dated February 25, 2009 (ECF No. 126), as amended on December 17, 2009 and June 1, 2011 (ECF Nos. 1078, 4125) (collectively, the “Second Amended Compensation Order”), allowing and awarding (i) interim compensation for services performed by the Trustee and B&H for the period commencing August 1, 2022 through and including November 30, 2022 (the “Compensation Period”) of $38,098,225.98, and (ii) reimbursement of the Trustee’s and B&H’s actual and necessary expenses incurred during the Compensation Period of $312,692.55, and in support thereof, respectfully represents as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The work completed as counsel to the Trustee during the Compensation Period yielded significant results for BLMIS customers and the liquidation. The Trustee has successfully recovered, or reached agreements to recover, nearly $14.559 billion as of January 31, 2023, for the benefit of all customers of BLMIS with an allowed claim.²

2. The Trustee has made fourteen interim distributions of customer property to date. See discussion infra Section IV(A)(h). The Trustee has distributed approximately $14.380 billion to BLMIS customers through February 24, 2023, inclusive of SIPC advances in the amount of nearly $849.9 million.³ See discussion infra Section IV(A)(h).

3. No administration costs, including the compensation of the Trustee and his counsel, has been or will be paid out of any recoveries obtained by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Because the percentage commission schedule for trustees found in § 326(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is not applicable in a SIPA liquidation proceeding, see § 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, no applications filed by the Trustee have or will ever include a fee request based on recoveries made by the Trustee for the benefit of BLMIS customers. Rather, all fees, expenses, and administrative costs incurred by the Trustee and his counsel including, but not limited to, B&H, various international special counsel retained by the Trustee (collectively referred to herein as “International Counsel”), including Browne Jacobson LLP (“Brown Jacobson”), Soroker-Agmon (“Soroker”), various special counsel to the Trustee (collectively referred to herein as “Counsel”), including Windels Marx Lane & Mittendorf, LLP (“Windels Marx”), Young Conaway Stargatt & Taylor, LLP (“Young Conaway”), and consultants, are paid out of administrative advances made by SIPC, as SIPA plainly directs. As Judge Lifland affirmed: “Again, the emphasis is that these fees . . . are not coming from any of the victims, and they're not coming from the estate.” Fifth Appl. Hr’g Tr. 32:15-17, Dec. 14, 2010.

³SIPC makes advances to satisfy customer claims before the Trustee recovers funds. Since the Trustee has recovered funds to satisfy customers up to $1,707,339.85, SIPC is reimbursed for the advances to customers whose claims have been fully satisfied to date. 1,517 BLMIS accounts have been fully satisfied.

4. As the Trustee’s and his counsels’ fees and expenses are chargeable to the general estate and not to the fund of customer property (the “Customer Fund”), the payment of the same has absolutely no impact on the Trustee’s current and future recoveries that have been and will be allocated to the Customer Fund for pro rata distribution to BLMIS customers whose claims have been allowed by the Trustee.

5. In a SIPA liquidation proceeding such as this, where the general estate is insufficient to pay trustee and counsel compensation, SIPC plays a specific role with compensation and is required to advance funds to pay the costs of administration. See SIPA §§ 78eee(b)(5)(C) and 78fff-3(b)(2). SIPC staff has carefully reviewed this Application, as it has all other compensation applications, and has closely analyzed the time records and services rendered. Each month, SIPC staff, the Trustee, and B&H engage in extensive discussions regarding billings, and the Trustee and B&H make reductions where appropriate and finalize the amounts that appear herein. Thus, the requested fees and expenses in this Application include (i) fees at the Trustee’s and B&H’s hourly billable rates to which a public interest discount of 10% has been applied, and (ii) actual, necessary, and reasonable expenses incurred within the Compensation Period.

6. During the hearing on the Eighth Interim Fee Application, Judge Lifland acknowledged the worldwide efforts of the Trustee and his counsel and approved the application:

Well, having heard the description and being well aware of the worldwide activities started off by Bernie Madoff and the sequelae is left for everybody else to follow all the trails and the trails do lead almost everywhere in the world. It is clear under the circumstances that a Herculean effort to follow those trails has been involved both with counsel here in the United States and counsel overseas.

Eighth Appl. Hr’g Tr. 16, Mar. 15, 2012, ECF No. 4736.

7. No single document can capture all of the tasks engaged in by the Trustee and B&H since their appointment on December 15, 2008. Hundreds of thousands of hours have been expended in support of the Trustee's efforts to liquidate the estate, determine customer claims, and advance the interests of all claimants by litigating and settling cases for the return of customer property ("Customer Property"). Moreover, the Trustee has vigorously defended the estate with respect to a number of litigations filed against it and against his protection of Customer Property. The following discussion and materials attached to this Application cover the major categories of services for which allowance of compensation is sought.

II. BACKGROUND

A. THE SIPA LIQUIDATION PROCEEDING

8. The Trustee and B&H's prior interim fee applications, each of which is fully incorporated herein, have detailed the circumstances surrounding the filing of this case and the events that have taken place during prior phases of this proceeding.

B. THE TRUSTEE, COUNSEL AND CONSULTANTS

9. The Trustee and B&H's prior interim fee applications have detailed the description of the Trustee's background and experience.

10. In rendering professional services to the Trustee, B&H has utilized a legal team comprised of professionals with extensive experience in areas such as bankruptcy, securities, tax, corporate, and litigation, permitting the Trustee to conduct this liquidation efficiently.

11. The Ponzi scheme perpetrated by Madoff through BLMIS was vast in scope, long in duration, and broad in its geographical reach. The Trustee, with the assistance of his counsel, has undertaken a comprehensive investigation of BLMIS, Madoff, and hundreds of related individuals and entities. To this end, the Trustee has engaged not only the services of counsel, but also those of forensic accountants and legal experts, including, but not limited to, AlixPartners

LLP (“AlixPartners”), the Trustee’s consultant and claims agent; FTI Consulting (“FTI”); and several investigative and industry consultants (collectively referred to herein as the “Consultants”).

C. PRIOR COMPENSATION ORDERS

12. The Trustee and B&H filed applications for allowance of interim compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in prior periods, and this Court approved those applications:

III. SUMMARY OF SERVICES

13. A SIPA liquidation proceeding contemplates, inter alia, the processing of customer claims, the orderly liquidation of the business of a broker-dealer, and the return of Customer Property to the failed brokerage's customers. Accordingly, the Trustee's and B&H's services, which are summarized in greater detail below, are comprised of specific tasks that are critical to accomplishing those objectives.

A. HARDSHIP PROGRAM

14. After nearly 12 years, the Trustee officially terminated the Hardship Program. Statistics regarding how many customers availed themselves of the Hardship Program are detailed in prior fee applications. After reviewing the facts and circumstances presented in each application and, in many cases, requesting additional verifying information, as of November 30, 2022, the Trustee had dismissed 284 Hardship Program applicants-defendants from avoidance actions. As of November 30, 2022, all Hardship Program applicants-defendants had been reviewed and 366 applicants-defendants were resolved because they were either withdrawn by the applicant, deemed withdrawn for failure of the applicant to pursue the application, denied for lack of hardship or referred for consideration of settlement.

B. THE RECOVERY AND RETURN OF CUSTOMER PROPERTY

15. Without the need for protracted litigation, during the Compensation Period, the Trustee settled three cases for $2,420,000.00. Through the end of the Compensation Period, the Trustee had successfully recovered approximately $14.542 billion.

16. The Trustee entered into settlements subsequent to the Compensation Period that will bring additional funds into the Customer Fund.

17. The Trustee is also engaged in ongoing settlement negotiations with a number of parties that when completed, will result in additional recoveries for the benefit of customers without the delay and expense of protracted litigation.

18. Through the end of the Compensation Period, the Trustee recovered $536,092,384.27 as a result of preferences and other settlements that were made pursuant to agreements subject to the net equity dispute. The United States Supreme Court (the “Supreme Court”) declined to review the net equity dispute.

IV. DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

19. Given the unprecedented fraud perpetrated by Madoff, the issues presented by this liquidation are complex, discovery is wide-ranging, and the litigation that has ensued is hotly contested. All of this requires an enormous effort by the Trustee and his counsel for the benefit of the victims. The following is a more detailed synopsis of the significant services rendered by the Trustee and B&H during the Compensation Period, organized according to internal B&H matter numbers and task codes.

20. Matter Number 01 is the general matter number used for tasks by the Trustee and B&H. Task numbers for Matter Number 01 have been assigned for specific categories of work to permit a more detailed analysis of the fees incurred.

21. Matter Numbers 03-77 (with the exception of Matter Number 05, which relates to customer claims) relate to litigation brought by the Trustee and B&H against various individuals, feeder funds, and entities. In each of these matters, the Trustee and B&H attorneys perform several functions, including the following tasks: conduct legal research, draft internal memoranda, engage in internal meetings regarding investigation and litigation strategy and engage in discussions with counsel for defendant(s). Rather than repeat these tasks, the description of each matter will be limited to matter-specific tasks and case activity that occurred during the Compensation Period.

A. MATTER 01

22. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H and encompasses the below enumerated tasks.

a. Task Code 05: Internal Meetings with Staff

23. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys in internal meetings regarding the liquidation proceeding, investigation and litigation strategy, as well as training sessions for attorneys and paraprofessionals. Internal meetings and discussions have ensured the effective use of time spent on this matter and avoided duplicative efforts.

b. Task Code 07: Billing and Trustee Reports

24. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee, B&H attorneys, and paraprofessionals reviewing the monthly B&H billing statements prior to submitting the statements to SIPC to ensure that time was properly billed, correcting any errors in time entries, writing off certain time and expenses as agreed to by B&H, preparing fee applications, responding to motions for leave to appeal fee orders, preparing Trustee reports, and other related tasks.

c. Task Code 08: Case Administration

25. This category relates to time spent assisting the efficient administration of the case.

26. The Trustee filed several motions before this Court that govern the treatment of and procedures related to the efficient litigation of these actions. These procedures ensure compliance with the Bankruptcy Code and SIPA, as well as consistency and transparency.

27. On October 20, 2011, the Trustee and B&H moved for an Order Establishing Noticing Procedures in order to streamline the procedural aspects of service in the main proceeding and all related adversary proceedings. (ECF No. 4469). This Court entered the Order on December 5, 2011. (ECF No. 4560).

28. On October 28, 2011, this Court entered an Order Granting Supplemental Authority to Stipulate to Extensions of Time to Respond and Adjourn Pre-Trial Conferences to March 16, 2012. (ECF No. 4483). Supplemental Orders were entered granting authority to extend time to respond to the complaint and adjourn the pre-trial conferences through September 14, 2012 (ECF No. 4483), July 18, 2014 (ECF No. 5358), January 16, 2015 (ECF No. 7037), July 17, 2015 (ECF No. 8762), July 15, 2016 (ECF No. 12312), December 23, 2016 (ECF No. 13601), July 31, 2017 (ECF No. 14447), December 31, 2017 (ECF No. 16169), June 27, 2018 (ECF No. 16718), December 19, 2018 (ECF No. 17560), December 18, 2019 (ECF No. 18093), December 16, 2020 (ECF No. 19027), October 5, 2020 (ECF No. 19826), December 31, 2021 (ECF No. 20418), and November 16, 2021 (ECF No. 20884), March 1, 2022 (ECF No. 21193). On October 20, 2022, a supplemental Order was entered granting authority to extend time to respond to the complaint and adjourn the pre-trial conferences through June 21, 2023 (ECF No. 22460).

d. Task Code 11: Press Inquiries and Responses

29. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee, B&H attorneys, and paraprofessionals in responding to press inquiries, preparing and issuing press releases, and preparing for and holding press conferences relating to BLMIS, Madoff, customer claims, and the recovery of funds.

e. Task Code 12: Document Review

30. This category relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys reviewing and analyzing BLMIS documents and documents received from parties and third parties in response to the hundreds of letters and subpoenas issued by the Trustee, in order to assess relevance to case-wide strategies and to identify and develop evidence in support of the Trustee's claims and defenses, as well as other discovery-related tasks that cross multiple cases.

f. Task Code 13: Depositions and Document Productions by the Trustee

31. This category generally relates to time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys conducting discovery that touches upon more than one matter, including team meetings, discussions and strategizing among Discovery Management Team case liaisons; research and analysis of issues with potential case-wide implications; creation and management of document databases, filing systems and related reference materials; creation and revision of discovery resources and procedural guidance; analysis and coordination of discovery affirmatively produced by the Trustee in avoidance actions; and responding to discovery propounded to the Trustee by various third parties and defendants in avoidance actions.

g. Task Code 14: International

32. The fraud Madoff perpetrated through BLMIS has many international implications involving foreign individuals, feeder funds, and international banking institutions. The Trustee is actively investigating and seeking to recover assets for the BLMIS estate in many different jurisdictions, including Austria, the Bahamas, Bermuda, the British Virgin Islands (“BVI”), Canada, the Cayman Islands, England, France, Ireland, Israel, Luxembourg, Spain, and Switzerland. These investigations utilize a combination of voluntary requests for information and the use of the Trustee’s subpoena power.

33. This category relates to the ongoing investigation, the preparation and service of subpoenas against entities in many jurisdictions, service of process, and communication with International Counsel regarding the utilization of local laws to obtain necessary discovery and pursue recovery of customer property in foreign jurisdictions. The investigation is made challenging by the broad array of bank secrecy statutes and other foreign legislation designed to limit discovery.

34. In addition, time categorized by this task code relates to the participation in and monitoring of various BLMIS-related third-party actions brought in Europe and the Caribbean, as well as discussions with International Counsel on strategic and jurisprudential matters that involve multiple actions against more than one defendant.

h. Task Code 21: Allocation

35. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys coordinating the distribution of Customer Property.

36. The ultimate purpose of marshaling the Customer Fund is to distribute those monies, as SIPA directs, to BLMIS customers with allowed claims.

37. The Trustee filed fourteen motions seeking entry of an order approving allocations of property to the Customer Fund and authorizing pro rata interim distributions of Customer Property, and this Court entered orders approving those motions:

38. On February 24, 2023, the Trustee distributed over $49.553 million, or 0.265% of each BLMIS allowed claim through the completion of the Fourteenth Interim Distribution, unless the claim had been fully satisfied. This represents a significant milestone in this litigation, with 1,517 BLMIS accounts fully satisfied through February 24, 2023.⁸ The 1,517 fully satisfied accounts represent over 66% of accounts with allowed claims. When combined with the prior thirteen distributions, and the approximate $849.9 million in advances paid or committed to be ⁶The total amount allocated in the Fifth Allocation and Fifth Interim Distribution Motion was $704,395,951.58. Between the filing of that motion and the Fifth Interim Distribution date, an additional $52,142,279.87 was recovered and included in the numerator.

⁷This represents the amount allocated to the Customer Fund in the Supplemental Sixth Allocation and Sixth Interim Distribution Motion filed on October 20, 2015. The original Sixth Allocation and Sixth Interim Distribution Motion filed on April 15, 2015 did not allocate any additional recoveries to the Customer Fund; the Trustee simply re-allocated $1,448,717,625.26 of funds that had previously been allocated to the Customer Fund for the Time-Based Damages Reserve.

paid by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (“SIPC”), the Trustee has distributed approximately $14.380 billion to BLMIS customers through February 24, 2023, or 70.717% of each BLMIS allowed customer claim.

B. MATTER 05 – CUSTOMER CLAIMS

a. Customer Claims

39. As of November 30, 2022, the total amount of allowed claims is $19,493,795,916.92, and the Trustee has paid or committed to pay $849,868,412.47 in cash advances from SIPC. This is the largest commitment of SIPC funds of any SIPA liquidation proceeding and greatly exceeds the total aggregate payments made in all other SIPA liquidations to date.

40. As of November 30, 2022, 11 customer claims relating to 7 customer accounts remained “deemed determined,” meaning that the Trustee has instituted litigation against those account holders and related parties. The complaints filed by the Trustee in those litigations set forth the express grounds for disallowance of customer claims under §502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, such customer claims will not be allowed until the avoidance actions are resolved by settlement or otherwise and the judgments rendered against the claimants in the avoidance actions are satisfied.

b. General Creditor Claims

41. As of November 30, 2022, the Trustee had received 428 timely and 22 untimely filed secured and unsecured priority and non-priority general creditor claims totaling approximately $1.7 billion. The claimants include vendors, taxing authorities, employees, and customers filing claims on non-customer proof of claim forms. Of these 450 claims and $1.7 billion, the Trustee has received 95 general creditor claims and 49 broker-dealer claims totaling approximately $265 million. At this time, the BLMIS general estate has no funds from which to make distributions to priority/non-priority general creditors and/or broker dealers. If the Trustee is able to fully satisfy the net equity claims of the BLMIS customers, any funds remaining will be allocated to the general estate and distributed in the order of priority established in Bankruptcy Code § 726 and SIPA § 78fff(e). All BLMIS customers who filed claims—whether their net equity customer claims were allowed or denied—are deemed to be general creditors of the BLMIS estate. The Trustee is working diligently on behalf of all creditors and will seek to satisfy all creditor claims.

c. The Trustee Has Kept Customers Informed Of The Status Of The Claims Process

42. Throughout the SIPA liquidation proceeding, the Trustee has kept claimants, general creditors, interested parties, and the public informed of his efforts by maintaining the Trustee Website (www.madofftrustee.com), a toll-free customer hotline, conducting a Bankruptcy Code § 341(a) meeting of creditors on February 20, 2009, and responding in a timely manner to the multitude of phone calls, e-mails, and letters received on a daily basis, both from claimants and their representatives.

43. The Trustee Website allows the Trustee to share information with claimants, their representatives, and the general public with regard to the ongoing recovery efforts and the overall liquidation. In addition to court filings, media statements, and weekly information on claims determinations, the Trustee Website includes up-to-date information on the status of Customer Fund recoveries, an “Ask the Trustee” page where questions of interest are answered and updated, a letter from the Trustee’s Chief Counsel on litigation matters, a detailed distribution page, an FAQs page, and a timeline of important events. The Trustee Website is monitored and updated on a daily basis.

44. In addition, the Trustee Website allows claimants and third parties to e-mail their questions directly to the Trustee's professionals, who follow up with a return e-mail or telephone call to the claimants. As of November 30, 2022, the Trustee and his professionals had received and responded to thousands of e-mails via the Trustee Website from BLMIS customers and their representatives and fielded thousands of calls from claimants and their representatives.

45. In sum, the Trustee and his team have endeavored to respond in a timely manner to every customer inquiry and ensure that the customers are as informed as possible about various aspects of the BLMIS proceeding.

C. MATTER 09 – FAIRFIELD GREENWICH

46. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance and recovery actions against Fairfield Sentry Ltd. ("Sentry"), Fairfield Sigma Ltd. Fairfield Sentry Ltd. (In Liquidation)*, Adv. No. 09-01239 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 18, 2009). This matter also categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing breach of contract and equitable claims against other Fairfield Greenwich Group affiliates, including the founding partners, management entities and officers, seeking over $919 million in management and performance fees wrongfully paid to the defendants. *Picard v. 48. As part of the Fairfield Funds settlement, Sentry agreed to permanently reduce its net equity claim in the SIPA liquidation proceeding from approximately $960 million to $230 million. Additionally, the Joint Liquidators agreed to make a $70 million payment to the Customer Fund. The Joint Liquidators also agreed to assign to the Trustee all of the Fairfield Funds’ claims against Fairfield Greenwich Group, Fairfield Greenwich (Bermuda) Limited, Fairfield Greenwich Advisors, LLC, Fairfield Risk Services Limited, Fairfield Greenwich Limited, Fairfield International Managers, Inc., Walter M. Noel, Jr., Jeffrey Tucker and all of their individual and entity affiliates, employees, officers, and partners (the “Management Defendants”), and the Trustee retained his own claims against the Management Defendants. Further, the Trustee and the Joint Liquidators agreed to share future recoveries in varying amounts, depending on the nature of the claims.

49. On July 7, 2011, this Court approved a settlement between the Trustee and the Greenwich Funds, wherein this Court entered judgment against Greenwich Sentry in an amount over $206 million and against Greenwich Sentry Partners in an amount over $5.9 million. Picard v. Fairfield Sentry, Adv. No. 09-01239 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.), (ECF No. 107). In the settlement, the Greenwich Funds agreed to permanently reduce their net equity claim in the SIPA

Additionally, the Greenwich Funds assigned to the Trustee all of their claims against the Management Defendants and agreed to share with the Trustee any recoveries they receive against service providers.

50. On April 2, 2012, the remaining defendants in the Fairfield Sentry action filed motions to withdraw the reference on a number of issues that later became subject to common briefing and hearings before Judge Rakoff of the District Court. The Trustee briefed and presented argument at the hearings on these issues before the District Court. The parties in the Toub action entered into a stipulated stay as permitted by this Court. None of the defendants in these actions have responded to the Trustee's complaints.

52. On November 22, 2016, this Court issued its decision on the extraterritoriality motion to dismiss. See discussion infra Section IV(U). Under the decision, some of the claims against the moving defendants in the Fairfield, Barrenche, and RD Trust actions were dismissed. Finally, the parties consented to direct appeal of the extraterritoriality decision to the Second Circuit. On

E. MATTER 29 – RYE/TREMONT

This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys following the settled avoidance action filed on December 7, 2010, against Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Tremont Partners, Inc., Tremont (Bermuda) Ltd., Rye Select Broad Market Fund, and numerous related investment funds, entities and individuals (collectively, the “Tremont Funds”) in which the Trustee sought the return of approximately $2.1 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences and fraudulent conveyances in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS (the “Tremont Litigation”). Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05310 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 2010).

129. After the court filing, the parties entered into substantive settlement negotiations, which resulted in a significant settlement approved by the Court on September 22, 2011. The settlement between the Trustee, the Tremont Funds and the former chief executive of Tremont Group Holdings, Inc. resulted in the cash payment amount of $1.025 billion. Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05310 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 7, 2010), (ECF No. 38). This is the largest cash settlement to date in any case brought by the Trustee against any feeder or investment fund.

130. Two objections to the settlement agreement were filed by non-BLMIS customers, both of which were overruled by this Court. There were two non-settling defendants at the time, Sandra Manzke (“Manzke”) and Rye Select Broad Market XL Portfolio Limited (“XL Portfolio”).

131. Certain objectors filed an appeal of the Tremont settlement on October 18, 2011. See Picard v. Tremont Group Holdings, Inc., Adv. Proc. No. 11-7330 (GBD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 18, 2011). On June 27, 2012, United States District Judge George B. Daniels granted the Trustee’s motion to dismiss the appeal, and judgment was entered on June 28, 2012. (ECF Nos. 35, 36).

132. On July 27, 2012, an appeal of the judgment was filed with the Second Circuit. (ECF No. 37). Prior to submitting any briefing, however, the parties submitted a joint stipulation of dismissal, and the appeal was dismissed on October 25, 2012. (ECF No. 39). Accordingly, Tremont delivered $1.025 billion into an escrow account on November 6, 2012, and the settlement payment was released from escrow to the Trustee on February 8, 2013. Thereupon, the Trustee allowed certain customer claims related to Tremont.

133. On February 10, 2012, defendant XL Portfolio settled with the Trustee in connection with the Tremont Litigation, as well as two other actions commenced on December 8, 2010, by the Trustee against XL Portfolio and other defendants. These other actions are captioned Picard v. ABN AMRO Bank, N.V. et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05354 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010) and Picard v. ABN AMRO (Ireland) Ltd., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05355 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010).

134. On September 17, 2013, the remaining defendant in the Tremont Litigation, Manzke, who was also a defendant in the captioned action, Picard v. Maxam Absolute Return Fund Ltd., et al., Adv. Proc. No. 10-05342 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 8, 2010), settled both actions against her. After the Maxam settlement, Manzke was dismissed from the Tremont Litigation, and that case closed.

135. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys assisted in preparing necessary disclosure and discovery in support of the Trustee's avoidance actions against the recipients of customer property that was subsequently transferred from Tremont. In addition, strategy and investigation for actions against subsequent transferees has continued, including work involving issues related to establishing and supporting elements of actual knowledge or willful blindness of some of the proposed defendants, analysis consistent with recent court rulings, and preparation for proving at trial the underlying allegations against Tremont itself in support of several of the Trustee's avoidance actions against the recipients of subsequent transfers.

N. MATTER 53 – MAGNIFY

227. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys concerning litigation related to the avoidance action against Magnify Inc., Premero Investments Ltd., Strand International Investments Ltd., The Yeshaya Horowitz Association, Yair Green and Express Enterprises Inc. (collectively, the “Magnify Defendants”) seeking the return of over $150 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the defendants. Picard v. Magnify Inc., et.al., Adv. No. 10-05279 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 6, 2010). This litigation includes: (i) an action in Israel, commenced in 2015, to recover funds transferred to certain defendants (collectively, the “Direct Defendants”) from BLMIS; (ii) an action in Israel, commenced in 2015, to recover funds transferred to certain defendants (collectively, the “Indirect Defendants”) through the Magnify Defendants’ BLMIS accounts; and (iii) the Trustee’s subsequent transferee action in the U.S. brought to recover subsequent transfers of customer property from The Yeshaya Horowitz Association to Defendants The Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Yissum Research Development Corporation of the Hebrew University of Jerusalem

Ltd., Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, B.G. Negev Technologies and Applications Ltd., The Weizmann Institute of Science, and Bar Ilan University (collectively, the “Subsequent Transfer Defendants”). Picard v. Hebrew University of Jerusalem et al., Adv. No. 21-01190 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 27, 2021).

228. Following the Court’s Order of June 18, 2019 directing the Trustee and the Magnify Defendants to participate in mediation (ECF No. 181) and the July 11, 2019 order appointing Mr. Ted Berkowitz as the mediator (ECF No. 185), the parties engaged in a mediation from September 12-14, 2019 to consider a settlement framework that would involve both the action against the Magnify Defendants and the action against the Direct Defendants. Following the mediation session, discussions among the parties continued, and the terms of a settlement were reached.

229. The Trustee negotiated and drafted agreements for the resolution of those actions, along with consent judgments to be entered against the defendants and other ancillary documents. In connection with the negotiations, the Trustee conducted due diligence on financial disclosures provided by the defendants. As a result of those efforts, the Trustee entered into a settlement agreement with the Magnify Defendants, which was approved by the Bankruptcy Court on September 28, 2020 (ECF No. 197), and also with the Direct Defendants.

230. In addition to a settlement payment of $3.5 million USD, which exceeded the two-year fictitious profits alleged against certain defendants, the settlement avoided the full life-to-date amount of the initial transfers as fictitious profits pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. The settlement resulted in consent judgments against Defendants Magnify, Premero, Strand, and YHA for the full amount of the unrecovered liability alleged by the Trustee, among other benefits. YHA has no assets and did not contribute to the settlement payment. The consent judgments were entered by the Court on October 22, 2020 (ECF Nos. 198-202).

231. Following the settlement, the Trustee continued prosecuting his action in Israel against the Indirect Defendants. Also following the settlement, the Trustee filed his action in the U.S. against the Subsequent Transfer Defendants. On February 10, 2022, the Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed a motion (ECF Nos. 16-27) to dismiss the Trustee's complaint. The Trustee filed his opposition to the motion to dismiss on June 15, 2022 (ECF No. 36). The Subsequent Transfer Defendants filed their reply on September 15, 2022. The Trustee's team prepared for oral argument on the motion to dismiss, including monitoring case-wide developments and decisions on relevant legal issues, and research and drafting of memorandums concerning issues of law concerning U.S. and Israeli corporate law, jurisdictional considerations, and the Bankruptcy Code. Oral argument on Defendants' motion to dismiss occurred on December 21, 2022. A decision by the Court has not yet been rendered.

232. Finally, during the Compensation Period, the Trustee consulted with Israeli counsel to analyze strategic issues relating to the ongoing Israeli and U.S. cases, including the production of documents, affidavits and other materials in support of his case, and working with experts in both the U.S. and Israel in connection with expert reports and related materials. The Trustee also continued to address multiple issues concerning document discovery and performed legal and factual research to help prosecute the Trustee's ongoing cases, including preparing responses for oral argument related to the Subsequent Transfer Defendants' reply brief.

O. MATTER 60 – AVELLINO & BIENES

233. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Avellino & Bienes, Frank J. Avellino, Michael S. Bienes, Nancy C. Avellino, Dianne K. Bienes, Thomas G. Avellino, and numerous other trusts and entities (collectively, the "A&B Defendants") seeking the return of over $904 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for preferences, fraudulent transfers, fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the A&B Defendants. Picard v. Avellino, Adv. No. 10-05421 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 10, 2010).

234. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, drafted and filed a response to certain of the A&B Defendants' (the "Summary Judgment Defendants") motion to amend ("Motion to Amend") the Court's decision granting the Trustee's motion for partial summary judgment seeking to avoid and recover fictitious profits made to certain defendants between December 11, 2006 and December 11, 2008, and seeking an order holding the general partners liable for the intentionally fraudulent transfers and requiring the general partners to return those transfers to the Trustee. The Trustee's response was filed on August 3, 2022.

235. B&H attorneys prepared for and appeared at a hearing on the Summary Judgment Defendants' Motion to Amend before the Hon. Cecelia G. Morris, on August 10, 2022. B&H attorneys then focused on responding to the Summary Judgment Defendants' notice of appeal (the "Appeal") of the Court's Order, dated August 23, 2022, granting the Trustee partial summary judgment and denying the Motion to Amend, including preparing for and appearing at a conference before the Hon. Gregory H. Wood seeking permission to dismiss the Appeal, on September 22, 2022.

236. B&H attorneys drafted a motion to dismiss the Summary Judgment Defendants' Appeal, which was filed on October 6, 2022. Picard v. Mayfair Ventures. G.P., No. 22-cv-07711-GHW, ECF Nos. 13-15. B&H attorneys then reviewed and edited a proposed stipulation from the Summary Judgment Defendants to dismiss their appeal and dismiss the Trustee's motion to dismiss as moot, which was so ordered by the Court on October 19, 2022. Id., ECF Nos. 18, 19.

237. B&H attorneys also performed overall case management and prepared for trial.

P. MATTER 62 – SUBSEQUENT TRANSFERS

238. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing recovery actions against entities that received subsequent transfers of Customer Property from BLMIS.

239. The Trustee has approximately 79 subsequent transfer cases that seek to recover transfers of customer property of approximately $3.88 billion that defendants received from various BLMIS feeder funds, including the “Fairfield Funds” managed by the Fairfield Greenwich Group, the “Tremont Funds” managed by Tremont Partners, Inc., and/or Harley International (Cayman) Limited.

240. Prior to this Compensation Period, on August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit issued the Citibank Decision, 12 F.4th 171 (2d. Cir. 2021), holding that in a SIPA liquidation proceeding the good faith defense provided in 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(c) and 550(b) is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee does not bear the burden of pleading a transferee’s lack of good faith. The Citibank Decision vacated a prior decision from the district court, which held that in a SIPA liquidation good faith is governed by a willful blindness standard and that a SIPA trustee bears the burden of pleading the transferee’s lack of good faith.

241. During the Compensation Period, and following the Citibank Decision, counsel for the Trustee met and conferred with counsel for the subsequent transfer defendants to discuss a date by which defendants will respond to the Trustee’s complaints. Defendants in dozens of different adversary proceedings filed motions to dismiss the Trustee’s complaints, which the Trustee opposed. In several cases, the Trustee also prepared and/or filed amended complaints that seek to add or correct transfers that defendants received from the various feeder funds.

242. During the Compensation Period, the Bankruptcy Court denied defendants' motions to dismiss in 25 cases.¹¹ Outside the Compensation Period, the Bankruptcy Court denied defendants' motion to dismiss in 21 cases.¹² In addition, the Trustee has opposed 11 motions for interlocutory appeal to the District Court filed by defendants following the Bankruptcy Court's denial of defendants' motions to dismiss.¹³

Q. MATTER 63 – CITRUS INVESTMENT HOLDINGS, LTD.

243. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Citrus Investment Holdings, Ltd. (“Citrus”) seeking the return of approximately $17 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent transfers in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Citrus (the “Citrus Action”). Picard v. Citrus Investment Holdings, Ltd., Adv. No. 10-04471 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. November 30, 2010).

244. On November 29, 2022, the pretrial conference in this matter was adjourned until June 21, 2023.

245. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, continued preparing and revising an amended complaint against Citrus. This work included review and analysis of account documents, correspondence and documents produced by service providers to Citrus, and revising the amended complaint’s allegations to meet the current pleading standards. B&H attorneys also continued to review and analyze recent motions to dismiss and related decisions concerning issues relevant to the claims against Citrus, and also analyzed the connections between claims in the Citrus Action and claims and parties in other actions. B&H attorneys also continued to engage in discovery planning.

R. MATTER 65 – LEGACY

246. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance action against Legacy Capital Ltd. (“Legacy”) seeking the return of over $218 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and other applicable law for fraudulent conveyances and damages in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of the Legacy. Picard v. Legacy Capital Ltd., Adv. No. 10-05286 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 6, 2010) (the “Legacy Initial Transfer Action”).

247. As background, on November 12, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court entered a Stipulation and Order for Entry of Final Judgment (“Stipulated Order”), that included, among other things: (i) the Trustee’s and Legacy’s consent to the Bankruptcy Court’s entry of a final order and judgment in connection with the Trustee’s avoidance claim, and (ii) entry of the final order and judgment against Legacy in the amount of $79,125,781.00. The Stipulated Order further provided that “the Legacy Transfers are avoidable and avoided under § 548(a)(1)(A) and recoverable from Legacy under §550(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.”

248. On November 11, 2020, and within the time period set forth in §550(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Trustee filed a recovery complaint against Rafael Mayer, David Mayer, Montpellier International, Ltd., Prince Assets LDC, Khronos Group, Ltd., Montpellier USA Holdings, LLC, Price Resources LDC, Prince Capital Partners LLC, and Khronos Liquid Opportunities Fund Ltd. (collectively, the “Subsequent Transfer Defendants”). The complaint sought recovery of approximately $49,505,850 in subsequent transfers of BLMIS customer property originally made to Montpellier and Prince by Legacy. See Picard v. Mayer et al., Adv. No. 20-01316 (CGM) (the “Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action”). Among the claims were claims for vicarious liability including alter ego liability and piercing the corporate veil concerning the individual defendants.

249. On August 30, 2021, the Second Circuit issued a decision concerning an appeal in Picard v. Citibank, N.A. and Picard v. Legacy Capital, Ltd., holding that in a SIPA liquidation the good faith defense provided in 11 U.S.C. §§ 548(c) and 550(b) is governed by an inquiry notice standard and that a SIPA trustee does not bear the burden of pleading a transferee’s lack of good faith (the “Good Faith Decision”). The Good Faith Decision vacated Judge Rakoff’s 2014 consolidated good faith decision holding that in a SIPA liquidation good faith is governed by a willful blindness standard and that a SIPA trustee bears the burden of pleading the transferee’s lack of good faith. The Good Faith Decision also vacated Judge Bernstein’s 2016 motion to dismiss decision in the Trustee’s action against Legacy applying Judge Rakoff’s good faith decision, which had dismissed all claims in that action except for Count I to the extent it related to avoidance of fictitious profits. The Second Circuit remanded the Legacy Initial Transfer Action to the Bankruptcy Court for the proceedings to continue consistent with the appellate decision.

250. On April 27, 2022, the Trustee filed a complaint seeking to recover from BNP Paribas - Dublin Branch (“BNP Paribas”) pursuant to Section 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, initial transfers in the amount of $49.5 million made from BLMIS to BNP Paribas from Legacy’s BLMIS account. See Picard v. BNP Paribas – Dublin Branch, Adv. No. 2201087 (CGM) (the “BNP Paribas Recovery Action”). These transfers sought were avoided in the November 12, 2019 Final Judgment and Stipulated Order as fictitious profits transferred from BLMIS to, or for the benefit of Legacy.

251. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, reviewed Legacy’s amended Answer and Affirmative Defenses. In response, the Trustee prepared amended initial disclosures as well as drafted discovery requests for party and third-party witnesses in connection with the Legacy Initial Transfer Action, and with respect to the consolidated “good faith” issue at issue in the Legacy Initial and Subsequent Transfer Actions. The Trustee’s counsel also reviewed documents produced by third parties in connection with the Legacy Transfer Actions and other adversary proceedings, for the purpose of evaluating Legacy’s affirmative defenses.

252. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, prepared initial disclosures for exchange in the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action. On October 7, 2022, the Trustee and the Subsequent Transfer Defendants exchanged initial disclosures. Additionally, the Trustee prepared party and third-party discovery requests for use in the Legacy Subsequent Transfer Action.

253. During the Compensation Period, B&H attorneys, on behalf of the Trustee, agreed to adjourn the initial pre-trial conference in the BNP Paribas Recovery Action so that the parties could determine if the Trustee's claims could potentially be resolved through early mediation. On September 29, 2022, the Trustee served a settlement demand letter upon BNP Paribas. The parties then entered into a stipulation extending the time for BNP Paribas to file its responsive pleading sine die, while the parties continued to meet and confer on a potential early resolution. The Trustee and BNP Paribas are continuing their efforts to explore mediation in this matter and have interviewed mediators for this purpose. In the event the parties do not proceed to mediation or the mediation is unsuccessful, the Trustee will file a notice with the Court to set a deadline for BNP Paribas's responsive pleading.

S. MATTER 71 – SQUARE ONE

254. This attestation categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys pursuing the avoidance and recovery action against Square One Fund Ltd. ("Square One") seeking the return of approximately $26 million under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, and the New York Debtor and Creditor Law, in connection with certain transfers of property by BLMIS to or for the benefit of Square One. Picard v. Square One Fund Ltd., Adv. Pro. No. 10-04330 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 29, 2010).

255. Prior to the Compensation Period, the Trustee filed and served the Amended Complaint on December 21, 2018. (ECF Nos. 167–69). After Square One filed a motion to dismiss on February 14, 2019 (ECF No. 170), the Court granted in part and denied in part the motion to dismiss at a hearing on May 29, 2019. On June 13, 2019, the Court entered an order granting in part and denying in part Square One's motion to dismiss. (ECF No. 177). The Court so-ordered a Case Management Plan on July 16, 2019 (ECF No. 178), which has since been amended and the Second Amended Case Management Plan was so-ordered on May 16, 2022 (ECF 245).

256. During the Compensation Period, the Trustee and Square One continued to engage in fact discovery pursuant to the Court's Case Management Plan.

257. On October 3, 2022, the Decision dated September 21, 2022 from the Republique et canton de Geneve was filed (ECF No. 255).

258. On October 25, 2022, the Trustee attended and took the deposition of Mr. Peter Fletcher in Toronto, Canada, in accordance with the Trustee's Subpoena.

259. On November 3, 2022, a Notice of Adjournment of Hearing was filed and the pre-trial conference was adjourned to June 21, 2023 (ECF Nos. 256, 258), which was subsequently adjourned by the Court to November 15, 2023 (ECF No. 261).

260. On November 10, 2022, Judge Morris signed and ordered a Stipulation and Order for Third Amended Case Management Plan submitted by counsel for the Trustee and counsel for Square One (ECF No. 259).

261. On November 15, 2022, the Trustee attended and took the deposition of Mr. Luc Estenne in New York, New York, in accordance with the Trustee's Notice of Deposition.

262. On November 16, 2022, the Trustee attended and took the deposition of Square One Fund through its designated representative Mr. Luc Estenne in New York, New York, in accordance with the Trustee's Rule 30(b)(6) Subpoena.

263. On December 29, 2022, Judge Morris signed and ordered a Stipulation and Order for Fourth Amended Case Management Plan submitted by counsel for the Trustee and counsel for Square One (ECF No. 260).

T. MATTER 73 – BNP PARIBAS

264. This matter categorizes time spent by the Trustee and B&H attorneys in separate adversary proceedings that collectively seek the return of approximately $1 billion under SIPA, the Bankruptcy Code, and the New York Fraudulent Conveyance Act from BNP Paribas S.A. and its subsidiaries—BNP Paribas Arbitrage SNC, BNP Paribas Bank & Trust (Cayman) Limited, BNP Paribas Securities Services, BNP Paribas (Suisse) S.A., and BGL BNP Paribas Luxembourg S.A., (collectively, the “BNP Paribas Defendants”)—who redeemed money from feeder funds that invested with BLMIS. See Picard v. BNP Paribas Arbitrage, SNC, Adv. No. 11-02796 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 3, 2011); Picard v. BNP Paribas S.A., Adv. No. 12-01576 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 4, 2012); and Picard v. Equity Trading Portfolio Ltd., Adv. No. 10-04457 (CGM) (Bank. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 1, 2010) (collectively, the “BNP Paribas Proceedings”).

265. On October 3, 2018, the Bankruptcy Court issued its decision granting in part and denying in part the BNP Paribas Defendants’ motion to dismiss claims to recover subsequent transfers that the BNP Paribas Defendants received from certain Tremont feeder funds, and on January 17, 2019, the BNP Paribas Defendants filed their answer to the Trustee’s Amended Complaint.

266. The parties then agreed to stay the proceedings until the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit decided the good faith appeal pending in the Trustee’s actions against Citibank, N.A. and Legacy Capital Ltd. See discussion supra Section IV(I) and (R).

267. During the Compensation Period, following the Second Circuit’s decision in Picard v. Citibank N.A. and Picard v. Legacy Capital, Ltd., in In re Bernard L. Madoff Investment

Securities LLC, 12 F.4th 171 (2d Cir. 2021), B&H attorneys analyzed the filed complaints in the BNP Paribas Proceedings, investigated potential amendments, and assessed potential motion practice and discovery.

U. MATTER 77 – EXTRATERRITORIALITY

268. On July 6, 2014, the District Court held that certain of the Trustee’s claims were barred by principles of international comity and the presumption against extraterritoriality, stating that “section 550(a) does not apply extraterritorially to allow for the recovery of subsequent transfers received abroad by a foreign transferee from a foreign transferor,” and directed further proceedings related to the Trustee’s claims be returned to the Bankruptcy Court. Sec. Inv’r Prot. Corp. v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, 513 B.R. 222 (S.D.N.Y. 2014).

269. On November 22, 2016, this Court issued a decision granting in part and denying in part defendants’ motion to dismiss on extraterritoriality. Sec. Inv’r Prot. Corp v. Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, Adv. Pro. No. 08-01789 (ECF No. 14495).

270. On February 25, 2019, the Second Circuit reversed the rulings of the District Court and Bankruptcy Court. The Second Circuit held that neither the presumption against extraterritoriality nor international comity limits the reach of section 550(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, enabling the Trustee to recover property from certain subsequent transferees. Accordingly, the Second Circuit vacated the judgments of the Bankruptcy Court and remanded for further proceedings. In re Picard, Tr. for Liquidation of Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec. LLC, No. 17-2992 (L), 2019 WL 903978 (2d Cir. Feb. 25, 2019). On April 8, 2019, defendants filed a motion to stay the issuance of the mandate pending the filing of a petition for a writ of certiorari, (ECF No. 1413), which the Second Circuit granted on April 23, 2019. (ECF No. 1503).

271. On August 30, 2019, defendant-petitioners filed a petition for a writ of certiorari in the Supreme Court of the United States. HSBC Holdings PLC v. Irving H. Picard, No. 19-277.

On September 30, 2019, amicus briefs in support of petitioners were filed by the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands; certain British Virgin Islands restructuring professionals; Cayman Finance and Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association of the Cayman Islands; Recovery and Insolvency Specialists Association of Bermuda; and the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association, the Institute of International Bankers, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. On October 30, 2019, the Trustee as respondent filed his brief in opposition to the defendants' petition, and the petitioners filed their reply brief on November 14, 2019.

272. On December 9, 2019, the Supreme Court of the United States invited the Solicitor General to file a brief in this case expressing the views of the United States. On April 10, 2020, the Solicitor General filed a brief recommending that the Court deny the petition.

273. The petition was distributed on April 28, 2020 for consideration at the Court's May 14, 2020 conference. On June 1, 2020, the Supreme Court denied defendants' petition.

V. COMPENSATION REQUESTED

274. This Application has been prepared in accordance with the Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on April 19, 1995, as amended on August 1, 2013 (the "Local Guidelines") and the Second Amended Compensation Order. Pursuant to the Local Guidelines, the declaration of David J. Sheehan, Esq., regarding compliance with the same is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

275. The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, expended 71,768.20 hours in the rendition of professional and paraprofessional services during the Compensation Period, resulting in an average hourly discounted rate of $530.85 for fees incurred. The blended attorney rate is $612.37.

276. Prior to filing this Application, in accordance with the Second Amended Compensation Order, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided to SIPC:

(i) monthly fee statements setting forth the Trustee's and B&H's fees for services rendered and expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, and (ii) a draft of this Application. In connection with the four monthly statements, the Trustee and B&H voluntarily adjusted their fees by writing off $1,970,955.80 (not including the 10% public interest discount, as discussed below), and wrote off expenses customarily charged to other clients in the amount of $42,649.84.

277. At SIPC's request, the Trustee's and B&H's fees in this case reflect a 10% public interest discount from their standard rates. This discount has resulted in an additional voluntary reduction during the Compensation Period of $4,233,136.22. The requested fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market.

278. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on September 19, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from August 1, 2022 through August 31, 2022 (the "August Fee Statement"). The August Fee Statement reflected fees of $11,160,556.80 and expenses of $100,560.97. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the August Fee Statement reflected fees of $10,044,501.12 and expenses of $100,560.97. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $9,040,051.01 for services rendered and $100,560.97 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

279. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on October 19, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from September 1, 2022 through September 30, 2022 (the "September Fee Statement"). The September Fee Statement reflected fees of $11,318,586.10 and expenses of $40,208.12. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the September Fee Statement reflected fees of $10,186,727.49 and expenses of $38,215.61. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $9,168,054.74 for services rendered and $38,215.61 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

280. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on November 17, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from October 1, 2022 through October 31, 2022 (the "October Fee Statement"). The October Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,999,126.90 and expenses of $70,456.21. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the October Fee Statement reflected fees of $8,999,214.21 and expenses of $70,329.71. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $8,099,292.79 for services rendered and $70,329.71 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

281. Pursuant to the Second Amended Compensation Order, on December 19, 2022, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, provided SIPC with their statements of fees and expenses incurred in connection with this case regarding the period from November 1, 2022 through November 30, 2022 (the "November Fee Statement"). The November Fee Statement reflected fees of $9,853,092.40 and expenses of $103,942.40. SIPC's staff requested certain adjustments and made suggestions, which were adopted by the Trustee and B&H. After such adjustments, the November Fee Statement reflected fees of $8,867,783.16 and expenses of $103,586.26. After subtracting the Court-ordered 10% holdback, SIPC advanced $7,981,004.84 for services rendered and $103,586.26 for expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H.

282. Exhibit B annexed hereto is a schedule of the B&H professionals, including the Trustee, and B&H paraprofessionals who have provided services for the Trustee during the Compensation Period, the capacity in which each individual is employed by B&H, the year in which each attorney was licensed to practice law, the hourly billing rate charged by B&H for services provided by each individual, the aggregate number of hours billed by each individual, and the total compensation requested for each individual, prior to the 10% discount.

283. Exhibit C annexed hereto is a summary of compensation by work task code and matter number for total number of hours expended and total fees for services rendered by B&H professionals and paraprofessionals. The 10% discount is taken off the total cumulative amount billed, as reflected on Exhibit C.

284. Exhibit D annexed hereto provides a schedule of the expenses for which reimbursement is requested by B&H.

285. There is no agreement or understanding among the Trustee, B&H, and any other person, other than members of B&H, for sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case. No agreement or understanding prohibited by 18 U.S.C. § 155 has been made or will be made by the Trustee or B&H.

286. To the extent that time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Compensation Period but were not classified or processed prior to the preparation of this Application, the Trustee and B&H reserve the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.

VI. REQUEST FOR INTERIM COMPENSATION SHOULD BE GRANTED

287. Section 78eee(b)(5)(A) of SIPA provides in pertinent part that, upon appropriate application and after a hearing, “[t]he court shall grant reasonable compensation for services rendered and reimbursement for proper costs and expenses incurred . . . by a trustee, and by the attorney for such a trustee” Section 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA specifically establishes SIPC’s role in connection with applications for compensation and the consideration the Court should give to SIPC’s recommendation concerning fees. That section provides as follows:

In any case in which such allowances are to be paid by SIPC without reasonable expectation of recoupment thereof as provided in this chapter and there is no difference between the amounts requested and the amounts recommended by SIPC, the court shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC. In determining the amount of allowances in all other cases, the court shall give due consideration to the nature, extent, and value of the services rendered, and shall place considerable reliance on the recommendation of SIPC. SIPA § 78eee(b)(5)(C).

288. To the extent the general estate is insufficient to pay such allowances as an expense of administration, § 78eee(b)(5)(E) of SIPA requires SIPC to advance the funds necessary to pay the compensation of the Trustee and B&H. See SIPA § 78fff-3(b)(2).

289. While the Trustee has recovered, or entered into agreements to recover, over $14.559 billion as of January 31, 2023, a significant portion of these funds must be held in reserve pending final resolution of several appeals and disputes.

290. Accordingly, the Trustee has determined that, at this time, he has no reasonable expectation that the general estate will be sufficient to make a distribution to general creditors or pay administrative expenses. The Trustee has been advised by SIPC that it concurs in this belief. Any fees and expenses allowed by this Court will be paid from advances by SIPC without any reasonable expectation by SIPC of recoupment thereof.

291. Therefore, with respect to this Application, the Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, request that consistent with § 78eee(b)(5)(C) of SIPA, the Court “shall award the amounts recommended by SIPC.” See In re Bell & Beckwith, 112 B.R. 876 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1990). SIPC will file its recommendation to the Court with respect to this Application prior to the hearing scheduled to be held on April 19, 2023.

292. The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, submit that the request for interim allowance of compensation and expenses made by this Application is reasonable and complies with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code governing applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses, pursuant to § 78eee(b)(5) of SIPA.

VII. CONCLUSION

The Trustee, and B&H, as counsel to the Trustee, respectfully submit that the services rendered during the Compensation Period and accomplishments to date merit the approval of the fees and disbursements requested herein, and respectfully requests that the Court enter Orders as follows: (i) allowing and awarding $38,098,225.98 (of which $34,288,403.38 is to be paid currently and $3,809,822.60 is to be held back through the conclusion of the liquidation period or until further order of the Court) as an interim payment for professional services rendered by the Trustee and B&H during the Compensation Period, and $312,692.55 as reimbursement of the actual and necessary costs and expenses incurred by the Trustee and B&H in connection with the rendition of such services; and (ii) granting such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
